

Cross ownership is bad for the country but especially bad for me-someone who does not want their news information filtered through only one source.

Monopolies stifle free speech.